Cohen's Lottery and Exchange-Office.

Boc signo Fortuna.

BALTIMORE—THURSDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1827.

The Capital sold at Cohen's.

Again we have to congratulate our friends and the adventurers at this Office, on the success which attended their investments in the second class of the LITERATURE LOTTERY, the drawing of which, agreeably to announcement, took place yesterday afternoon, under the superintendence of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor and Council. On the opposite page will be found the official list of the entire drawing—The capital prize of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS. (No. 5772.) we had the pleasure of selling in a whole ticket—it is owned in Baltimore.—The capital of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLS: (No. 2398,) we divided into shares of One Half and Two Quarters.—One of the latter was sent to a gentleman in Annapolis, the other shares held in this city.—The capital of THREE THOUSAND DOLLS: (No. 3775,) is held in South Carolina, in a whole ticket. The TWO THOUSAND DOLLS: (No. 5114,) we divided and sold in Quarters; one of them we sent to Charleston, S.C.; one to the same gentleman at Annapolis, who drew also the quarter of the 5000 dollar prize mentioned above; one to two gentlemen in Norfolk, Va.; and the other quarter held in Baltimore.

The 1000 and 500 doll. prizes were variously distributed—also the minor denominations of Hundreds and Fifties. As heretofore and agreeably to our usual promptness, the Cash is ready for the fortunate holders whenever and as early as it may suit their convenience to present their tickets, which can either be done personally or by mail.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT INTELLIGENCE.

Great Naval Battle.—We received this morning the following slip from the office of the New-York Mercantile Advertiser:

The ships Wm. Thomson, and Helen, Captain Cobb, have just arrived from Liverpool, both having sailed on the 17th of November. They bring the important intelligence of the TOTAL DESTRUCTION OF THE TURKISH AND EGYPTIAN FLEETS.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Despatches were yesterday morning received at the Admiralty, announcing a brilliant victory obtained on the 20th October in the port of Navarino, by the English, French and Russian squadron over the combined Turkish and Egyptian fleets.

The battle was fought at anchor, and was necessarily bloody and destructive. The numerical superiority of the Turkish force was immense, but the result has been, we are proud to say, the destruction of the whole Turkish force.

The following is a synopsis of the forces:

Line.	Frigates.	Corvettes.	Sloops, &c.	Total.
English	3	4	0	4
French	3	2	0	2
Russia	4	4	0	0
—	—	—	—	—
Allies	10	10	0	6
Turks	3	19	26	18
				66

Four of the frigates, were, in fact, sixty-four gun ships, and there were forty transports moored behind the line of battle. The following is a statement of the fate of the enemy's fleet:—One Turkish line-of-battle-ship burned; two driven on shore, wrecks—one double frigate sunk; one on shore, a wreck; two burned—fifteen frigates burnt and sunk; three on shore, wrecks; one on shore, masts standing—fifteen corvettes burned and sunk; four on shore, wrecked—nine brigs burnt and sunk; one on shore, masts standing—six fire-ships destroyed and three transports. Of the sixty-six vessels of war, only eight are left afloat—the most perfect victory ever achieved.

The despatches were brought to Marsailles by Lord Viscount Ingestrie, in the Gannet, where his Lordship was detained by the quarantine regulations; but the authorities permitted the despatches to be forwarded by a courier. They arrived at the Admiralty yesterday morning, and were immediately sent off to his Majesty, at Windsor,

To the paragraph noticing the quickness with which the express, with the President's Message, travelled from Washington to Baltimore, the "American Farmer" adds the following:

"The distance was travelled from Merrill's to the Post Office in Baltimore, very nearly thirteen miles, in forty-five minutes, by two black mares, sisters, bearing hard on the bit. They were bred in Washington county; and, it is needless to add, they were deep in the blood. Three hours and ten minutes for thirty eight miles."

Congress of the United States.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 4.

Agreeably to constitutional provision, the first session of the twelfth congress commenced yesterday at the capitol of the United States, and, as was anticipated, almost every member of both houses was at his post.

In the senate.—The vice president of the U. States took the chair a few minutes after 12 o'clock, when the usual preliminary resolutions were adopted.

In the house.—The clerk called to order at the appointed hour, and upon calling the roll of members, it appeared that 207 out of the 213 were present, the absentees being Mr. Oakley, of New-York, Mr. Holcomb, of New Jersey, Mr. Bryan, of North Carolina, Mr. Davis, of South Carolina, and a vacancy in each of the states of Georgia and Kentucky. The first business was the election of a speaker, which, on the first ballot, resulted in the choice of Mr. ANDREW STEVENSON of Virginia, the ballots being as follows:—

For Mr A. Stevenson,	- - -	104
For Mr. J W Taylor,	- - -	94
For Mr. P. P. Barbour,	- - -	4
And scattering,	- - -	3

Mr. Stevenson, receiving 104, which were a majority of all the votes given, he was declared by the tellers to be elected, and was conducted to the chair by Mr. Randolph, of Virginia, where he made his acknowledgments to the house, in a dignified and very appropriate address.

The Post Office Establishment—From the American Farmer published at Baltimore, we learn these interesting facts Under the new contracts, the Post Master General has arranged to have the mail at Cincinnati in six days from Baltimore: and so prosperous are the affairs of the department under the administration of Mr. McLean, that we have reason to think he will report a nett surplus revenue of $100,000, after a prodigious extension of routes, and increase of facilities; and that he will be able and willing to make the turnpike from this city to Philadelphia, with the revenue of his department, should Congress deem it expedient and within their power to "establish post roads."

National Road—The following is a statement of the number of Horses, Horned Cattle, Sheep and Hogs, which have passed in droves through Frostburgh, Allegany county, Maryland, on the National Road, for the Eastern Markets, between the 1st of January and 30th October 1827, viz:

Horses,	- - - -	1,851
Horned Cattle,	- - - -	11,384
Sheep,	- - - -	5,272
Hogs,	- - - -	6,926

Arrival of the Hornet—The United States ship Hornet, Alexander Claxton, Esq. Commander, arrived at New-York yesterday, in 25 days from Tampico, touching at Havana and Matanzas.

While the Hornet lay at Matanzas, information arrived that the brig South America, of Philadelphia, had got on shore on Cayo Blanco, and that the people from the shore had taken possession of, got her off in good anchorage inside the Keys, and then plundered her of part of her cargo. The Commercial Agent at Matanzas had sent a schooner with a pilot, and the Commander of the Hornet, the day after, ordered the United States schooner Grampus to her rescue. The brig Burdet sailed with the Hornet from Havana bound to this port. The Hornet has on board 134,000 dollars for merchants of New-York and Baltimore.

The Hornet has been cruising in the Gulph of Mexico for a year past, during which time the crew have enjoyed good health.

A Jack Tar's commencing-frolic—The following is a copy of a bill produced to a Jack Tar, paid off within this week or two past at Plymouth, by a landlord of a public house at Devenport. The sailor strolled into the house of mine host early on the morning following the day on which he had been paid off. Jack's coppers were of course dry, and he sung out most lustily for a pot of beer. This was brought him, and liking his quarters, he remained in the house till the following morning about ten o'clock, when his reckoning was called for, and the various under-mentioned items were produced in his account—Jack, not over and above sober, examined the bill, turning his quid in his jaw, and every now and then swearing it was all right. He paid the bill, and then declared the landlord should have a parting glass for good luck. This ceremony was gone through with, and Jack and his lass staggered off to have a ride to Plymouth, to enjoy himself there.
